

Three Day Workshop by The Gender Sensitisation Unit of Sikkim Government College Burtuk under The Aegis of Rashtriya Uchchatar Siksha Abhiyan (RUSA) From 22nd November To 24th November 2016.

The Gender Sensitisation Unit (GSU) of Sikkim Government College Burtuk organised a three day workshop on "The 21st Century Woman: Roles, Issues and Challenges", for the benefit of the students and the faculty members of the institution under the aegis of RUSA from 22nd November to 24th November, 2016.

The prime objective of the workshop was to equip the participants with knowledge and concepts on gender and development themes. Its goal was to highlight various stereotypical roles and role strains of a modern woman, to explore the concept of gender sensitivity and to examine the differences between gender (socially constructed stereotypes and expectations based on sex). It also aimed to create awareness on various burning issues like women's safety and health, rape and sexual assault on women, women's economic empowerment, and legal and property right of women with reference to Sikkim that needs to be identified and discussed in order to get the desired outcome. The workshop intended to deconstruct the myth of gender superiority acknowledging the roles and responsibilities of both men and women in relation to each other in order to have a positive impact on society and nation as a whole.

There were 14 technical sessions spread over three days with a minimum of three technical sessions per day. The workshop was attended by students from different streams of SGC, Burtuk, 26 faculty members, support staff, a maximum of 83 participants from other institutions and 11 resource persons.
